7. What to expect during your visit

Everyone is welcome at Autograph. You can expect a friendly and inclusive atmosphere.

While each person has a different pace when looking at artworks, we recommend allowing 30-60 minutes for your visit.

Visitor Assistants in the galleries: Have a question about the art on display or need assistance? Ask one of our friendly Visitor Assistants! They are in the galleries to help with any queries. They will be wearing a black t-shirt or fleece with Autograph written on it.

A member of staff is always located at the welcome desk on the ground floor.

Social media and photography in the galleries: Share your visit on your social channels. Feel free to take pictures in the exhibitions for social media and personal use, you can tag us at @autographabp. If you want to take photographs for commercial use, you'll need to get in touch with us first.

Visiting with children: We warmly welcome families and caregivers with buggies and prams. Our building is step-free, including the entrance. Baby change facilities are located on the ground floor.

Shop: Books are available to purchase at the reception desk and in our online shop. All sales support Autograph's arts and learning programmes.

Support Autograph: Did you know that we are a registered charity? Admission to Autograph's gallery is free, and we ask visitors to please consider donating to support our work. You can donate at the contactless tap points outside the galleries, and online.
